Three men accused of flooding the West with bank notes printed with stolen plates, were captured at San Francisco.

Mrs. Beckham, the governor's wife, has been critically ill at Frankfort, but is much better. The little daughter is doing well.

The president has refused to pardon J. M. McKnight, the convicted Louisville banker.

Fire destroyed the J. Wright Company plant, of the American Cigar Company, in Richmond, Va., causing a loss of $200,000.

Five more lives were lost as the result of a second explosion of gas in the new Cleveland water works tunnel under Lake Erie.

A census bulletin shows that the United States death rate of 1900 was 10 per cent less than in 1899.

A fast express collided with a freight train on the Chicago & Alton railroad at Prentice, Ill. Five persons were killed and six injured.

One hundred armed Negroes rescued a Negro prisoner from a constable in Liberty county, Ga. A race war is believed to be imminent.

Henry E. Youtsey has been put to work in the wood planing department of the Frankfort penitentiary. He will hold the job permanently.

Ora Jennings, who was umpiring a ball game at Farmersburg, Ind., was struck over the head by one of the players and fatally injured.

The latest report from the City of Goldensville on the Ohio river below Paducah, places the number of dead and missing at over 30.

Everything is quiet at St. Charles, Hopkins county, where a sheriff's posse was fired upon. It is alleged, by union miners. Troops will not be needed.

The explosion of the benzine tank at the Atlantic Refining Company's oil works, in Polut Breese, Pa., caused five deaths. Seventeen men were injured.

For the first time in 20 years there is not a single unpaid individual claim on file in the claim department in Frankfort, and the finances of the State are in fine condition.

The Phoenix Investment Company of Lexington, has written a letter to Attorney General Breckinridge asking for an inspection of their books and methods of business.

The navy department has ruled against Admiral Schley in his request that Admiral Howison, of the Court of Inquiry, be required to explain certain pro-Sampson utterances.

The grand jury to be called at the September term of the Franklin circuit court will continue the investigation of the conspiracy which resulted in the death of Gov. Goebel.

Orlando Pursell shot and killed his father near Sneedville, Tenn. They were watching for dogs that had bothered their sheep and the night being dark the son mistook his father for a dog.

A mob at Pierce City, Mo., burned a Negro to death in his home and set fire to the cabins of five blacks. The Negroes were driven from town and the citizens declare that none will be allowed to live there in the future.

The public health report just issued by the Marine Hospital Service shows the existence of 8,258 cases of smallpox in the United States against 3,312 at the same time last year. Minnesota had the largest number of cases, 1,162.

While some sections of the country continue to suffer from the drought, the crops in the Middle and South Atlantic and East Gulf States, including East Tennessee, experienced damaging winds as well as injury from overflows.

Manager Robinson, of the St. Bernard Coal Company, at Arlington, was fined $25 and sentenced to 15 days in jail at Sturgis for unintentionally exposing a revolver in getting into a buggy. The warrant was inspired by union miners, who have long been fighting the company represented by Mr. Robinson.

LANCASTER.

Born, to the wife of Tom Walls, a lovely girl.

On Thursday, Miss Fannie West entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. S. W. Center, of Kingston, Tenn.

Elder A. R. Moore, of the Christian church here, is having a very interesting meeting at Hubble. Large crowds are present and much interest is being shown.

Our colored population have just closed a two weeks camp meeting. They say a large crowd was always in attendance and that a great deal of good was done.

Burnham & Rucker have taken possession of Ward's Mill and now have unlags running smoothly, being able to furnish their customers with the best flour to be had in the State.

Dr. W. M. Doores, of Crab Orchard, came over Wednesday. He has many friends here and is one of the best physicians to be found anywhere. He enjoys perfect health and looks as young as he did 10 years ago.

The wet weather continues and our hemp growers are beginning to feel very despondent over the losses caused them by the rotting of their hemp in the field. While it is too late for the rain to do them any great good, it will cause the late grass to be plentiful and farmers say a good crop of late grass is more than equal to a half corn crop.

Miss Kittie Meter, of Lexington, who has been visiting Mrs. Wm. Moss, has gone to Preachersville to visit Mrs. George King. Miss Marie Joseph has returned from a delightful visit to Miss Lydia Pearl Rose, her cousin, at Shelby City. Miss Mamie Bastin is at home after a pleasant visit to relatives in Crab Orchard. Miss Annie Austin is again at Dripping Springs for her health. Miss Little Noel is the guest of relatives in Pineville. Miss Katherine Simpson is running the millinery establishment during Miss Noel's absence. Miss Margaret Noel, of Joseph's Dry Goods Store, is now taking a much needed rest in the country.

Circuit court convened here Monday when the following grand jury was impaneled: E. D. Bishop, foreman; S. P. Davis, J. T. Leavell, Wm. Bourne, S. J. Bourne, J. W. Elmore, A. D. Hughes, W. S. Walker, Moses Collier, Wm. Coldiron, Thomas Ralston and Robert Guiley. The petit jury is composed of the following: B. W. Gaines, J. W. Huffman, John Allen, T. J. Hatcher, G. A. Bruce, C. A. Carpenter was fined $200 for assault and battery and $100 and 30 days for carrying concealed weapons. Other misdemeanor cases were disposed of. The case of Jane Estridge, charged with murdering her child, consumed two days and resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

Loved James Walker Givens.

CARROLLTON, MISS., Aug. 19.—In a late issue of your paper I noticed the death of J. Walker Givens, and as I promised him last year to write something to be published in the I. J. that my old pupils might hear once more of their old teacher, I take this occasion to comply with my promise and put on record my high regard for my dear old pupil now laid to rest. He always wrote to me or came to see me when in Mississippi. I shall miss his annual presence very much and both myself and family grieve profoundly over his death. He was a man to arouse all the deeper affections of a friend's heart, and he had won my most ardent love. He was one of the few in whom I had unbounded confidence. May his crown of glory gleam with many stars. "Requiescat in pace."

There are numbers of my old pupils still living in old Lincoln; the Baileys, the Coopers, the Dryes, the Givenses, &c., too numerous to mention. Those once my pupils, now heads of families, may know by this that their old teacher still lives at 77 years, though some of his pupils have gone before him to the better land. I wish I could see those who remain and shake their hands once again before I pass over the river to join those who have gone before. May the good Lord bless them all, that if we meet no more on earth we may be an unbroken band in that world where neither sickness nor death comes and where all shall be in an eternal reunion. J. LOTON BARNES.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

MIDDLEBURG.

Jeff T. Short and the writer took in the circle excursion Tuesday to High Bridge, thence down the beautiful Kentucky river, the Hudson of the South, on the steamer Falls City, to Frankfort, thence over the P. & C. railroad to Georgetown and then down to Lexington over the C. S., where we took in the fair. While at Frankfort we hurriedly took in the Capitol building, officers' buildings, the pen and arsenal. Frankfort is in a hole and the government buildings are a disgrace to the fair name of old Kentucky. We were at the fair Confederate day when at least 1,000 of the old Johnny Rebs were present. The fair was turned over to them and the old boys who fought so gallantly for our Southland, with their wives, sons and daughters were largely in the majority. The way the old vets "done" the Mid-way was a caution and the old boys seemed to enjoy fun equally as much as the latter day jubilants. We had the pleasure of meeting Gov. James B. McCreary, who is also an ex-Confed, and who it is deemed shall succeed that miserable misfit, Deboe, at Washington. On Thursday Gen. Joe Wheeler was the center of attraction and the chief drawing card. He was advertised as "Fighting Joe Wheeler, Major General Joe Wheeler, the Hero of Heroes and the Nation's Idol." It is needless to say Fighting Joe Wheeler was a sufficient drawing card for the little hero of two wars. He was most ably presented to the people in an oratorical effort by the silver tongued W. C. P. Breckinridge. Short and the writer both served under "Fighting Joe" in the Philippines and we were not slow in letting it be known when we pulled his paw.

As is well known, the Casey rade have a machine that works something like the Sapp machine of Louisville, though of lesser magnitude. A great many honest republicans of the county and especially of the Bethel vicinity are very sore at the way the "clique" has been carrying on and making nominations; many threaten a bolt, but this consternation seems to be playing as much havoc in the ranks of the democracy as in the republican camp. Many rads claim and honestly believe that the clique captured the democratic convention and that a bargain was made and that it was understood that the democrats should only make one nomination. It is well known that the clique referred to has it in for Capt. Rains, or at least is supposed to, while many decent republicans who would otherwise support our candidate, Mr. Jones, for judge, claim that they had rather see him defeated than for the clique to triumph. In fact their slogan is "down with the bosses." It is needless to say that there is not one word of truth in the above, though strange to say many honest republicans and democrats believe it and are talking it, much to the injury of clean and honest county politics. The county democratic committee has always been able to attend to its own affairs and has never been of that ilk to make bargains with the enemy. Mr. Jones is not only the legal nominee and choice of the majority of his own party, but has friends by the hundreds in the republican party. The only effective way in doing away with the so-called machine is by electing M. W. Jones judge, as a more competent man for the position could not be found. There is no need of the present rump among those who have spent their best years out on the line in the heat of battle, gallantly fighting for the glorious principles of democracy. With a united force our man can win, but scores of republicans who would otherwise support him honestly believe the report that is circulated by our enemies. It is needless to say there is no foundation for such a report and it was only concocted to breed dissension.

If you have a baby in your house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a spoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

The initial number of the Semi-Weekly Harrodsburg Democrat made its appearance on last Tuesday, and it was certainly a fine one. The people of Harrodsburg are to be congratulated upon having such a wide-awake editor at last bold of the Democrat. Editor W. P. Walton is par excellence in all branches of the newspaper field.—Danville News.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

HON. M. F. NORTH.

One of the purest things, next to death and taxes, is that Hon. M. F. North will represent this county in the next Legislature. Having served faithfully in that body several years ago and having made a record that every democrat in the county should be proud of, the people recognize in him the man for the position he aspires and they are going to elect him. During Mr. North's services as representative he was scarcely ever absent and he probably did more work than any other man in the House. He introduced a number of bills which became laws and the State would be better off to-day if more of his bills had gone through. As a recent admirer of Hon. James B. McCreary, Mr. North will take pride in casting his vote for that distinguished gentleman for United States Senator—the thing his constituency wants him to do. As a party worker, none are more zealous than Mr. North, whose services for democracy have been untiring. He is a fine speaker and his voice will be heard on many a stump before the present campaign closes. As a runner, he is a sprinter of the first class and Hon. Is. B. King realizing this, we do not believe he will care to try conclusions with him.

MT. VERNON.

Rev. Hartzfield filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

We know of but one pair of "left handed" scissors in the county.

A coach load of passengers went from here this, Thursday, morning to the Broadhead fair.

Butterfly day occurred here one day last week when thousands of them were seen flitting around.

In President Lincoln's first race he only received one vote in Rockcastle and that was cast by Jack Brown.

Humming birds in great numbers visit the telephone exchange daily to revel among the many flowers in the surrounding yard.

There is a cat here that is a grasshopper fiend. It captures and devours a dozen or more of these insects daily. Tobacco flies also have fallen into its claws.

Mrs. James Dalton, of Pine Hill, is very ill. Livingston entertained 12 of the Cincinnati Post's "Fresh Air" children, who had a rattling good time on their outing.

Nack Johnson, an old gentleman living near Orlando, whose mind has been affected of late, wandered away Wednesday afternoon and searching parties have failed to find him.

The third annual meeting of the Kentucky Telephone Association will take place at Owensboro on Oct. 5th and 6th. The Bell companies have today in the United States 1,000,000 phones in use; the Independents have 1,500,000.

John Logsdon has lost considerable corn by depredating coons. He took his neighbors' dogs Saturday night, went on a hunt, cut three trees, sat up balance of night by a big tree too large to cut. When daylight arrived only a small blue possum was found sitting on the lower limb.

The following list shows the majorities given in the republican primary last week: S. D. Lewis, for judge, 447; L. W. Bethurum, attorney, 707; M. C. Miller, clerk, 173; H. L. Tate, sheriff, 110; J. M. Ballard, superintendent, 335; J. W. Kirby, assessor, 122; J. W. Parsons, jailer, 10; S. N. Davis, surveyor, 752, no opposition.

Messrs. Soward and Pennington, foreman and devil of the Signal office, were in Cincinnati Sunday and took in the Zoo and other gardens. W. T. Brooks, the Paris druggist, was here with relatives this week. Prof. Ewers has returned from Indiana. Other members of the family will come about the 1st. Ed Short is home from Richmond to see his mother, who is critically ill. Mrs. Purdom and daughter, of Lincoln county, are visiting the family of D. S. Purdom, this place. Mrs. S. G. Maret and daughter, Mayme, of San Antonio, Texas, are visiting relatives in Danville. The family moved from Paint Lick to Texas in 1874. Houston Childress, of Orlando, is seriously ill. We are greatly pained to note that Mrs. W. T. Short is thought to be at the point of death.

THE United States has paid in pensions to June 30th last $2,763,350,033. The disbursements under Grant's first administration were $116,136,275; Grant's second term, $114,395,357; Hayes', $145,322,489; Garfield's, $237,825,070; Cleveland's first term, $305,636,602; Harrison's, $519,707,726; Cleveland's second term, $557,950,407; McKinley's first term, $560,000,547. These figures are simply staggering, but the worst of them is that a very large part of the almost fabulous sums is drawn by men who have no further claim on the country's bounty than that they were camp followers and coffee coolers. How long, oh Lord, how long are we to suffer such imposition? Echo answers, just so long as the time servers of both political parties bend the pregnant blinges of the knee to the professional pensioners that thrive to them may follow fawning.

EDITOR LILLARD, of the Danville News, has the sympathy of the press of Kentucky in the loss of his father, Col. Ephraim Lillard, of Lawrenceburg. Col. Lillard was 82 years old and left a wife and seven children. He was one of the most respected citizens of Anderson county and an elegant old Kentucky gentleman.

COL. CRADDOCK, of some other centenarian, says the late protracted dry spell was nothing compared with that of 1762, when no rain fell for 123 days, and grain and hay had to be brought from England. The record of other dry years in the last 200 years make that of 1901 almost hang its head in shame.

A CINCINNATI woman killed herself because she imagined her dog's love for her was waning. Its hard to tell what a woman won't do when she sets her head.

POLITICAL.

Boyle county rats will put out a ticket about Sept. 1.

Adjutant General William Brandon is a candidate for governor of Tennessee.

Senor Don Carlos Morla Vicuna, minister from Chili to the United States, died at Buffalo.

Collector Sapp will give Mr. John A. Stratton the republican nomination for mayor if he will accept it.

Julius Bodenheimer, former chairman of the Indiana State populist committee, died suddenly at his home near Kokomo.

The Iowa democratic convention committee on resolutions has voted against reaffirming the Kansas City platform.

Secretary Gage will visit Canton next week. It is believed he will urge the removal of Collector Sapp at the earliest possible moment.

Pennsylvania republicans in State convention unreservedly endorsed Quay and the last Legislature and adopted a platform in which "yellow journals" were denounced. This is a slap at Wanamaker.

The Iowa democratic convention has nominated Thomas J. Phillips, of Ottumwa, for governor and adopted a platform reaffirming the Kansas City platform, but expressing the conviction that the campaign should be confined to State issues.

Chairman Allie Young decides that the action of the Paris City Committee in declaring the recent primary for city offices void was illegal, and says in substance that the ticket headed by D. C. Parrish is legally nominated, until the contest set up by J. L. McClure and others is decided on its merits. He declares that the call for the primary for August 22 is illegal and calls it off.

Some people never know when they are dead. The Brownies down at Bowling Green nominated a lot of stiffs for county and legislative offices, who will be decently buried for all time at the coming election. The Brownies ought not to forget that an Ohio magistrate recently fined a man $5 for contempt, because he got up and walked while he was holding an inquest over him. If they do, they lay themselves liable to such infliction.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

DEATH.—Thomas, the two-year-old son of Mr. William Murphy, of Rowland, died Tuesday of whooping cough, and was buried Wednesday afternoon in Buffalo Cemetery. He was a grandson of Col. W. Huff Dodderer.

DECLARED INSANE.—Jack Eckler, who lives on Lutes & Co's. farm near Millersburg, was declared insane by a jury in Judge Bailey's court Tuesday and Wednesday morning he was taken to Lakeland Asylum by Sheriff S. M. Owens. He grew very wild at times and made it noisy around the jail the short while he was confined in it. A year ago Eckler had typhoid fever and it is believed that that disease caused the mental trouble.

SAME NAME AND COUSINS.—Tuesday a jewelry drummer called on William Hamilton, the jeweler, and introduced himself as William Hamilton. "That's my name," said our William Hamilton and then the two began to talk about the little coincidence. They found out that their fathers were brothers and that they were of the same age. They had never seen each other before, but each knew of the other's existence. The two soon grew to be very fast friends and our William Hamilton bought a big bill.

DEAD.—Miss Jennie Brown, who was shot at the Liberty fair Saturday afternoon by the Negro, Bill Vandover, who intended the bullet for Odle Paul, died Tuesday afternoon and was buried Wednesday. Believing that the Negro would be mobbed if he was kept in Liberty, Judge Tilford, of the Casey county court, ordered him brought here, and Sheriff T. J. Bell and E. H. Kidd turned him over to Jailer DeBord Wednesday afternoon. Vandover bears a most unsavory reputation, but the trouble he has gotten himself into will rid the public of him for a while if not forever. Miss Brown was a daughter of Thomas Brown, a highly respected Casey county farmer. She was 23 years old and a most excellent young lady. Her unfortunate taking away has cast a gloom over the community in which she lived and the feeling against those who brought about her death is naturally very bitter. Vandover waived his examining trial and as circuit court does not convene at Liberty until the first Monday in December it will be some time before justice will be meted out to the slayer of the fair young woman.

MAD.—The father of Miss May Prather, who lives near Wilmore, is said to be as mad as a wet hen over her marriage to Clark Fox, who the dispatches say is a farm hand, formerly in the employ of Mr. Prather. The couple married here Monday morning, as stated in our last issue, but we did not know at the time that there was such parental objection. The following dispatch sent from Danville shows that they had a hard time procuring the necessary papers for the important event: "Mr. Fox and Miss Prather, from the vicinity of Wilmore, have been spending the last two days traveling through this section attempting to get married. They applied for license here Sunday, and on being refused, went to Stanford. The father of the bride telephoned to Danville, Harrodsburg and other towns with a view to intercepting them, and telephoned here offering a reward of $50 for the couple unmarried. It is said that Miss Prather is only 14 years of age." Tuesday County Clerk George B. Cooper was called over the telephone by a Wilmore party, whom he supposed was the girl's father. After asking about issuing the license the irate man told him to hold him responsible for the young lady's marriage and left the phone. Mr. Cooper has the law on his side, however, and is losing no sleep over the threat.

LATEST Improved Superior Grain Drills at Higgin's & McKloneys.

THE people are learning that Withers' Furniture Store is the place to buy goods at right prices.

THE climax in beauty of person and speech will be reached at the Garrard Opera House, Lancaster, Sept. 5, 5 P. M., when 10 of the most gifted young ladies in Central Kentucky will engage in an elocutionary contest. A handsome diamond ring and a gold watch will be awarded to the first and second best. Miss Polly Traylor will represent Stanford and Miss Sara Wood Lyon Millersburg Female College. These young ladies will act well their part and do justice to the high standard of culture enjoyed by our people. Admission only 50 cents, with the privilege to reserve seats without extra cost.

FIRE.—Wednesday night about 11:45 o'clock, the grocery store of Mr. J. B. Higgins, near the depot, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was turned in and the fire department responded very promptly and succeeded in saving most of the building, but the stock of goods is nearly a complete loss. Mr. Higgins, who was sleeping in the building, does not know whether the fire was caused by a lamp exploding, or mice gnawing matches, but is of the opinion the latter was the cause. The loss on stock will amount to about $500, with only $300 insurance. The building, the property of Mr. P. P. Nunnally, was partially covered by insurance.

LATER.—The insurance on the stock of goods was satisfactorily adjusted and money paid yesterday in less than 12 hours after the fire by a company represented by Mr. R. B. Mahony.

THE BRODHEAD FAIR.—The Sixth Annual Exhibition of the Brodhead fair begun Wednesday, with the largest first day's attendance in its history. Stock is on hand from a half dozen counties and it is of a very high grade. The rings are all warmly contested, while the races are very interesting. The officers and directors and Rockcastle county people generally are doing all in their power to make the fair a success and we are glad to state that they are succeeding most admirably. The hotels are doing a flourishing business and are taking care of the crowds in a manner satisfactory to all. Stores are closed up most of the day and merchants and other business men of Brodhead are vying with each other in making the visitors feel that it is good to be with them. Col. Jordan Peter Chandler is ring master as usual, and makes a good uno. The music furnished by the Southern military band of Crab Orchard, is the subject of much favorable comment. Following are a few of the awards of Wednesday: White corn, J. S. Duke; yellow corn, George Hlatt; wheat, W. J. Chestnut; oats, George Moore; rye, Fred Hahn; beans, Cash Hlatt; Irish potatoes, Wm. Haggard; onions, J. Mullins; turnips, Mrs. Josie Tyree; tomatoes, Alex. Tyree; cabbage, J. M. Bloomer; apples, Mack Tyree; peaches, L. L. Jarrett; pears, B. A. Hiddle; watermelons, A. C. McClary; muskmelon, J. B. Livesay; cantaloupe, J. B. Livesay; pumpkin, Wile King; cured tobacco, M. E. Tyree; broom corn, Wm. Adams; sugar cane, Wm. Haggard; millet, Walter Boyd; timothy, J. B. Livesay; clover, J. B. Livesay; black cake, Mrs. J. H. Albright; tea cake, Mrs. J. H. Albright; soda biscuits, Mrs. J. H. Albright; light bread, Lena Napier; honey, J. M. Crawford; sorghum, George Hlatt; butter, Mrs. Josh Dunn; peach preserves, Mrs. J. H. Albright; pear preserves, Mrs. J. H. Albright; display of preserves, Mrs. J. H. Albright; grape jelly, Mrs. J. M. Crawford; sweet pickles, Mrs. J. M. Crawford; grape wine, J. M. Crawford; blackberry wine, Mrs. Jerry Frith; cucumber pickles, Mrs. Jerry Frith; sun bonnet, Mollie Hlatt; cut flowers, Mary Roberts; oil painting, Mollie Hlatt; chair tidy, Mrs. J. B. Livesay; couch pillow, Miss Helen Thurmond. The farmers' running race had five entries and was won by Oscar Spoonamore. Egbert Wallin was second. Scott Farris won the pony race with Oscar Spoonamore second. Tom Minks owned the mule that won and Morris Farris the one that came second in the mule race. Mack Hughes, of Danville, took the trotting race with the fast horse, Musketoon. J. H. King, with Ante Carlo, got second money and Thomas Napier third. The boys' shoe race was won by Charley Lawrence.

CHURCH MATTERS.—The State Sunday-school Association meeting at Danville re-elected all old officers. The meeting conducted by Rev. Purdom, that has been going on at Bethel church, near Tabler, closed with 10 additions, says the Harrodsburg Democrat. A meeting is being held at old Cain Ridge church in Bourbon county to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the first camp-meeting held at this historic old house. The meeting at the Christian church continues to grow in interest. There have been several additions and the members are being greatly awakened. It will continue until Sunday, if not longer.

MATRIMONIAL.

Henry M. Flagler, recently divorced from his insane wife by means of a special act of the Florida Legislature, is to marry Miss Lilly Kenan at Kenansville, N. C., Saturday.

The records in Jeffersonville show that Miss Georgia Shalcross and Herman L. Ward, of Louisville, were married by Magistrate House on Feb. 19, 1900. Shortly after the clandestine ceremony Miss Shalcross died suddenly in Georgia and the secret was carried with her to her grave.

STANFORD, - - KENTUCKY

HON. JAMES BENNETT MCCREARY.

One of the best known public men of the day. The above picture is only a fair likeness of the distinguished soldier, statesman and citizen. He is known to the political world as the greatest hand-shaker of the age as well as the greatest political general. He began public life in '68, when he was chosen a presidential elector on the democratic ticket; in '69 he was elected to the Legislature from Madison, and in '71 and '73 was re-elected without opposition, being elected Speaker of the House three successive terms. In '75, when he was only 36 years of age, he was nominated by the democrats for governor and was elected over John M. Harlan, republican, now associate justice of the U. S. supreme court, by 37,000. At the expiration of his term he returned to his home at Richmond and resumed the practice of law. In '84 he became a candidate for Congress from the 8th district and was nominated by a large plurality, carrying 11 out of 13 counties then composing the district. He was elected without intermission to the 54th Congress, covering the unusual period of 12 successive years. As a gallant soldier, as State legislator and governor he won distinguished honors, but his untiring energies and services in Congress, which the whole country was prompt to recognize, brought him national and international fame. James B. McCreary is a man whom the people trust, and have trusted, for nearly 30 years, and is yet mentally and physically in the prime of life. Believing that a party can by organization and discipline make effective the principles which it espouses, he has been from boyhood a strict partisan—in essentials, orthodox; in non-essentials, liberal. He is a democrat who has served all the people—day in and day out—with loyal devotion to principle. He has supported the straight democratic ticket and platform, State and national, from first to last, since the day he cast his first ballot, and he has stamped the State for the cause he loves in many campaigns. He has done more to advance the interests of the democratic party in Kentucky than any other dozen public men put together. In the campaign of 1900, long knowing his genius for organizing and executive ability, he was called by the democrats to the front to assume the hard and exacting duties of the State democratic campaign committee for Bryan and Beckham. Leaving home and business, he removed to Louisville, and for three months, co-operating with democrats all over the State, he labored continuously; the glorious result achieved last November, against political enemies and against a hundred thousand dollars poured into the State to lure old Kentucky away from her democratic moorings, shows how wisely he worked—and how well.

Where were his distinguished opponents, excepting one, who are now opposing him for the democratic nomination for U. S. Senator from Kentucky when that armed mob of desperadoes from the mountains of Eastern Kentucky were terrorizing our State capital, and who finally assassinated our beloved governor, Wm. Goebel? We can answer the question easily: they were in Washington telegraphing back to friends at Frankfort, "If you need our services, wire us." Chas. Wheeler and D. H. Smith. "Where was grand, glorious, brave old McCreary? He was in the thickest of the battle, lending aid and counsel to his fellow-democrats, insisting on them to be brave and fearless and loyal to the laws of Kentucky, and not to let any stain be put upon the pages of Kentucky's history by democrats, but let law and order prevail.

If the democrats of Kentucky have left in their veins one drop of gratitude they will see to it that this grand, glorious and noble old democrat, who fought democratic battles in the '60's, when his opponents were not even old enough to cast their vote, is elected by the next General Assembly to the highest office within the gift of the people—United States Senator. It is, we believe, the ambition of his life to be Senator from Kentucky, the grandest State in the Union. Let's help him for his past services to the party, which he loves so well, realize that ambition by electing Hon. G. T. Farris, of the 18th senatorial district, and Hon. M. F. North, of Lincoln, as Senator and Representative, respectively.

McKINNEY.

Messes Mollie and Eva Vaught are on the sick list, but not confined to their beds.

Thieves broke into a box car on the side track here and stole 100 pounds of meat and a quantity of lard a few nights ago.

The Baptist church here called Rev. Eugene Sallee, of Texas, as pastor, who will begin his pastorate the 1st Sunday in September and will preach twice a month.

Mary, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alford, died of scarlatina, or some kindred disease, at her home near here Sunday morning and was buried here Monday.

G. E. Jones is improving his property on Hustonville street and has it contracted to a Casey county gentleman, who will occupy it as a manufacturing establishment, should he be able to secure residence here. We hope for his success.

Mr. Pryor Adams, son-in-law of our neighbor, David Smith, of South Fork, died of typhoid fever at his home in Lexington. He was brought here and buried in the McKinney Cemetery. Mr. Adams was a christian gentleman, which is the highest encomium paid to any man. He has left a good wife and four little children, besides numerous friends to mourn his early death.

Mrs. Sarah Dayton and two sons are down with intermittent and typhoid fever. The mother and John are convalescent, while Will is just entering on his second week of confinement to his bed. The boys have typhoid. The friends of Taylor Durham will regret to learn that he is dangerously ill—if not dead—of typhoid fever, at his new home in Wayne county. Mr. Durham moved from Middleburg a few months ago and located, temporarily, near Monticello.

A MINISTER'S GOOD WORK.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor, who treated him for some days without relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and he said 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in 15 or 20 minutes if he did not find relief; but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it is the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

Direct the Child.

He who checks a child with terror stops his play and stills its song. Not alone commits an error, But a grievous moral wrong. Give it play, and never fear it. Active life is no defect. Never, never break its spirit, Curb it only by direct. Would you stop the flowing river, Thinking it would cease to flow? Onward must it go forever. Better teach it where to go.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Annals. For sale at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be in and able. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with such titles, went, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, has therefore required constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post-graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors. COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitory, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. The last Legislature appropriated $30,000 for a college home for young women and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men. Military tactics and science are fully provided for, as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 620. For catalogue, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAMES K. PATTERSON, Ph. D., LL. D., President, LEXINGTON, KY. Fall term begins September 1, 1901.
